MISS REYNOLDS.

An enthusiastic young gentleman sends us the following description of the appearance of this young lady at the Theatre one evening last week: MISS REYNOLDS' CONCERT.-Music, coming from whatever source it may, always cheers and happifies us; but when stolen from strings with the graceful witchery of "fair hands," it brings upon us a gladsome eestacy-such it did for us on Thursday evening last when Miss REYNOLDS' "flying fingers kissed the strings," inviting melodies that would charm Calypso. Miss R. doubtless presents a greater variety of musical talent than any other one performer. Her transitions from the blending violin, to the mellow flute and thrilling octave, never fail to strike her audience with enchantment.

Thursday evening last she held forth at the Adelphi Theatre to a full and discriminating house, from which she elicited the warmest applause. At the conclusion of the concert, (as advertised) she presented a fine diamond ring to the person who was most successful in the sale of her concert tickets.-Our friend, Dr. Scott, of the Inn, being the successful competitor, after a brief, but beautiful and appropriate speech from Miss R., received the ring in the following style:

"Miss Revnouns, I accept this ring with much pleasure from its fair donor, and shall cherish it in remembrance of the Jenny Lind of America." May success attend her in her Southern tour.

THE THEATRE.

We understand that Mr. John Greene has leased the theatre from the gentleman who lately purchased it, for three years. We are happy to hear it. Mr. Greeke is not only the best actor in his line now on the stage, but he is in private life every inch a gentleman, and as a citizen an acquisition to Nashville. As a manager, he makes the theatre a place of respectable resort, and prunes it of objectionable features which elsewhere bring odium up-

We learn that Mr. NEAFIE, the tragedian, has been engaged for a short season, and will appear in a few days. This will be good news to theatre-

BENEFIT.-Mr. H. T. HARRIS is announced for a benefit at the Theatre to-night. The pieces selected are good; in addition to which he has secured the service of Miss KATE WALTERS, the well known and favorite dansense, also of Mrs. F. S. Buxton, formerly attached to the National Theatre, Boston, such attraction alone cannot fail to fill the house.

We have rarely witnessed a better hit on the stage than BERNARD made on Saturday night in the part of Ollapod. He may claim the characster as kis own. The Sir Robert Bramble of Mr. GREEKE ig the same play is one of the finest specimen« of acting to be seen on the modern stage, It was a pity that Johnson didn't know six lines of Hamphrey Dobbins, because it marred the effect of the inimitable acting of Greens.

MAIL ROBBER ARRESTED. We understand that Col. MARTIN, the active rnail agent for this State, has arrested Henry Johnson mail carrier on route 5400, from Franklin to Perryville, for robbing the mail. He is lodged in jail at Perryville. We also hear that the letter mail was stolen from the coach between Louisville and this city one night last week.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 80,-Corros.-After unusually arge operations on Thursday of last week, and a moderate value amount of business on Friday, the day of closing our last report, the market on Saturday presented a very quiet appearance, the full rates demanded by factors, and an advancing tendency in freights, having doubtless had their influence in checking the demand. Under these circumstances the sales of Saturday reached about 3590 bales. On stances the sales of Saturday reached about 3590 bales. On Mouday the weather was unfavorable, and the market again presented but little animation, the sales being confined to about 3600 bales. Yesterday the weather was clear again, and several buyers appeared in market, though principally, as we understood, for Middling to Good Middling descriptions, with which qualities the factors' tables were not well supplied, as the sampling of the recent receipts has been interrupted by rainy weather, and the rates demanded were generally quite full. At the same time the demand did not seem to be of an extensive character, being mostly for rather limited parcels, and the sales were only about $200 bales, making a total for the three days of $700 bales, taken for England, France, Spain, the Continent and the North. With respect to prices, we still find considerable irregularity, but on the whole we see no sufficient reason to LIVERPOOL, Nov 15 .- Since the sailing of the Canada or the 11th inst, our Cotton market has been exceedingly quiet, notwithstanding the advices per Asia, since to hand partial ly confirm the previous reports of a killing frest in the cot-ton growing regions. The limited wants of the trade, from their reduced consumption, is now telling upon the demand, and speculators, in the uncertainty attending the war in the East, see no inducement to operate extensively; and the American advices which would under other circumstance have caused some excitement, have only had the effect of sustaining last Friday's quotations, at which the market for exports are not operating, and the home trade demand is only for the immediate wants. Prices for all descriptions tend downwards. The transactions in our grain market have been confined to the wants of the trade, and prices for both Wheat and Flour remain the same as on Friday last. My wife has been laboring under a very strange female complaint for the last eighteen months and it seemed that no medicine had been given her, as her disease still progressed. I heard a good deal about your "Female Bitters," and I concluded to try them, although my opposition to such articles. My wife has consumed nearly two bottles, and her health has been rapidly improving ever since she commenced using them. At the Verandah Hotel, kept by Mrs. En MONDSON and her son-in-law Mr. Bacures, there is a gentleman from Scott County, Ky., who, for twelve months, suffered greatly from a chronic disease of the stomach and bowels, which could not be removed by the most approved practice, respected and continued as it was for the Dector's sale, He had paid his Doctor's Bill, without any calculation of making another, thaking it was of no use; and no one expressed any hope of his recovery except a stranger, who happened to pass that way, and advised him to a different course of treatment, which has this recommendation, that in five weeke time it has made him feel like engaging in business. But why does he come out of this spell of sickness a strong advocate of Dr. Arnold's Union Pills? Because, they are the principal remedy used in the treatment of his case; and to their efficacy he is principally indebted for his recovery. Should not such cases be published? If some persons are opposed to their publication, can anybody tell us the reason why? The gentleman above referred to is Euras Stone, a brother of John Stone, the clerk at the Verandar. Nashville, Oct. 19-tf
